

Do your bit

Imagine you are a member of the student council at your school. In this role, you are always active in fundraising for charity. Together with students at your partner school in England, you have decided to raise money for a project to help children either locally or in other parts of the world. There are plenty of different ways that you can do this. Your ideas and plans for promoting and how to carry out the fundraising event are to be presented online at the next school board meeting at your partner school.

Write your speech (500-600 words) to be presented at the school board meeting.

Include the following points:

- Inform the members of the board which charity you plan to raise money for and why.
- Argue for the importance of making a difference for others who need support.
- Describe your ideas for raising money for charity.
- Explain how you plan to organise your fundraising.

A speech is a presentation of your views in relation to a specific topic. It includes both your knowledge and your own opinions. In the context of a presentation, a speech should aim to convince the audience of your points of view.
